Who we are

EURES – European Network of Employment Services has an important role to play in providing information and facilitating placements for the benefit of employers and jobseekers across Europe including cross-border regions.

In practice, EURES delivers its services through the pan-European job search portal and through a human network of around 1,000 EURES Advisers that are in daily contact with jobseekers and employers across Europe.

The network gathers representatives from European Union countries as well as Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway and Switzerland, EURES Members and Partners, the European Commission and the European Coordination Office (ECO) established within the European Labour Authority.

Members and Partners in the network range from public to private employment services, trade unions, employer organisations, universities and other relevant actors in the labour market.

EURES Members and Partners provide information, placement and recruitment services to employers and jobseekers, whereas the European and National Coordination Offices oversee the organisation of the activities at European and national levels, respectively.

What can EURES offer you?

EURES helps jobseekers to find jobs and employers to recruit from all over Europe.

The European Union's principle of free movement of workers is one of your most important rights as an EU citizen. It means that you can move to any EU Member State, as well as Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, and Switzerland, to look for and take up a job as well as to recruit staff from any of these countries.

The purpose of EURES is to help with an efficient, service for jobseekers and employers to search, find or match CVs to job vacancies. This involves providing a broad range of services, available on the EURES portal or through the vast human network of more than 1,000 Advisers working in the EURES Member and Partner organisations.

EURES services to jobseekers and employers include:

- the EURES portal, where you can find 4 million jobs, 1 million CVs, and 5 000 registered employers;
- support to dynamic recruitment events through the European (Online) Job Days platform;
- information, guidance, and other support services for workers and employers, by 1 000 EURES Advisers;
- information on living and working conditions in participating European countries, such as taxation, pensions, health insurance and social security;
- specific support services for frontier workers and employers in cross-border regions;
- support to specific groups in the context of the EURES Targeted Mobility Scheme (such as young jobseekers);
- information on and access to post-recruitment assistance, such as language training and support with integration in the destination country.

To learn more about EURES services you can visit the EURES portal at eures.europa.eu. Find contact details of the EURES Members and Partners on the “EURES in your country” page or get in direct contact with a EURES Adviser by phone, mail or chat. You can also contact the EURES Helpdesk for help with using the portal or any other questions you may have.

Organisations can benefit from the extensive support network available through EURES, empowering them to better serve jobseekers and employers in your region.
